

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MATTHEW.

WRITER. The writer of the first Gospel, as all agree, was Matthew, called also Levi, a Jew of Galilee who had taken service as a tax-gatherer under the Roman oppressor. He was, therefore, one of the hated and ill-reputed publicans.

The date of Matthew has been much discussed, but no convincing reason has been given for discrediting the traditional date of A.D. 37.

Theme. The scope and purpose of the book are indicated in the first verse. Matthew is the "book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the Son of Abraham" (Mt. 1. 1). This connects Him at once with two of the most important of the Old Testament covenants: the Davidic Covenant of kingship, and the Abrahamic Covenant of promise (2 Sam. 7. 8-16; Gen. 15. 18).

Of Jesus Christ in that twofold character, then, Matthew writes. Following the order indicated in the first verse, he writes first of the King, the Son of David; then of the Son of Abraham, obedient unto death, according to the Isaac type (Gen. 22. 1-18; Heb. 11. 17-19).

But the prominent character of Christ in Matthew is that of the covenanted King, David's "righteous Branch" (Jer. 23. 5; 33. 15). Matthew records His genealogy; His birth in Bethlehem the city of David, according to Micah (5. 2); the ministry of His forerunner according to Malachi (3. 1); the ministry of the King Himself; His rejection by Israel; and His predictions of His second coming in power and great glory.

Only then (Mt. 26.-28.) does Matthew turn to the earlier covenant, and record the sacrificial death of the Son of Abraham.

This determines the purpose and structure of Matthew. It is peculiarly the Gospel for Israel; and, as flowing from the death of Christ, a Gospel for the whole world.

Matthew falls into three principal divisions:

I. The manifestation to Israel and rejection of Jesus Christ the Son of David, born King of the Jews, 1. 1-25. 46. The subdivisions of this part are: (1) The official genealogy and birth of the King, 1. 1-25; (2) the infancy and obscurity of the King, 2. 1-23; (3) the kingdom "at hand," 3. 1-12. 50 (the order of events of this subdivision is indicated in the text); (4) the mysteries of the kingdom, 13. 1-52; (5) the ministry of the rejected King, 13. 53-23. 39; (6) the promise of the King to return in power and glory, 24. 1-25. 46.

II. The sacrifice and resurrection of Jesus Christ, the Son of Abraham, 26. 1-28. 8.

III. The risen Lord in ministry to His own, 28. 9-20.

The events recorded in Matthew cover a period of 38 years (Ussher).

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat <sup>a</sup>Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat <sup>b</sup>Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat <sup>c</sup>Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat <sup>i</sup>Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And Ezekias begat <sup>o</sup>Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat <sup>j</sup>Josias;

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon;

12 And after they were brought to

Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat <sup>a</sup>Zorobabel;

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of <sup>1</sup>Mary, <sup>2</sup>of whom was born Jesus, who is called <sup>3</sup>Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was <sup>g</sup>spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, <sup>h</sup>a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

CHAPTER 2.

Visit of the Magi.

NOW when Jesus was <sup>k</sup>born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of <sup>4</sup>Herod the king, behold, there <sup>1</sup> Six Marys are to be distinguished in the N.T.: (1) Mary the mother of Jesus; always clearly identified by the context. (2) Mary Magdalene, a woman of Magdala, "out of whom went seven demons" (Lk. 8. 2). She is never mentioned apart from the identifying word "Magdalene." (3) The mother of James (called "the less," Mk. 15. 40) and Joses, the apostles. A comparison of John 19. 25, Mt. 27. 56, and Mk. 15. 40 establishes the inference that this Mary, the mother of James the less, and of Joses, was the wife of Alphæus (called also Cleophas, John 19. 25), and a sister of Mary the mother of Jesus. Except in Mt. 27. 61, and 28. 1, where she is called "the other Mary" (i.e. "other" than her sister, Mary the Virgin); and John 19. 25, where she is called "of Cleophas," she is mentioned only in connection with one or both of her sons. (4) Mary of Bethany, sister of Martha and Lazarus, mentioned by name only in Lk. 10. 39, 42; John 11. 1, 2, 19, 20, 28, 31, 32, 45; 12. 3, but referred to in Mt. 26. 7; Mk. 14. 3-9. (5) The mother of John Mark, and sister of Barnabas (Acts 12. 12). (6) A helper of Paul in Rome (Rom. 16. 6).

<sup>2</sup> The changed expression here is important. It is no longer, "who begat," but, "Mary, of whom was born Jesus." Jesus was not "begotten" of natural generation.

<sup>3</sup> Christ (Christos=anointed), the Greek form of the Hebrew "Messiah" (Dan. 9. 25, 26), is the official name of our Lord, as Jesus is His human name (Lk. 1. 31; 2. 21). The name, or title, "Christ," connects Him with the entire O.T. foreview (Zech. 12. 8, note) of a coming Prophet (Deut. 18. 15-19), Priest (Psa. 110. 4), and King (2 Sam. 7. 7-10). As these were typically anointed with oil (1 Ki. 19. 16; Ex. *29. 7; 1 Sam. 16. 13), so Jesus was anointed with the Holy Spirit (Mt. 3. 16; Mk. 1. 10, 11; Lk. 3. 21, 22; John 1. 32, 33), thus becoming officially "the Christ."

<sup>4</sup> Called Herod the Great, son of Antipater, an Idumean (see Gen. 36. 1, note), and Cypros, an Arabian woman. Antipater was appointed Procurator of Judæa by Julius Cæsar, B.C. 47. At the age of fifteen Herod was appointed to the government of Galilee. B.C. 40 the Roman senate made him king of Judæa. An able, strong, and cruel man, he increased greatly the splendour of Jerusalem, erecting the temple which was the centre of Jewish worship in the time of our Lord.

came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born <sup>1a</sup>King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and <sup>2</sup>scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where <sup>b</sup>Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: <sup>c</sup>for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall <sup>d</sup>rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the <sup>e</sup>star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

The flight into Egypt.

13 And when they were departed, behold, <sup>7</sup>the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>8</sup>of the Lord by the prophet, saying, <sup>3</sup>Out of <sup>h</sup>Egypt have I called my son.

Herod's slaughter of the innocents.

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which

<sup>1</sup> "The King" is one of the divine titles (Psa. 10. 16), and so used in the worship of the Church (1 Tim 1. 17), but Christ is never called "King of the Church." He is "King of the Jews" (Mt. 2. 2) and Lord and "Head of the Church" (Eph. 1. 22, 23). See "Church" (Mt. 16. 18; Heb. 12. 23).

<sup>2</sup> Gr. grammateis, "writer." Heb. sopherim, "to write," "set in order," "count." The scribes were so called because it was their office to make copies of the Scriptures; to classify and teach the precepts of the oral law (see "Pharisees," Mt. 3. 7, note), and to keep careful count of every letter in the O.T. writings. Such an office was necessary in a religion of law and precept, and was an O.T. function (2 Sam. 8. 17; 20. 25; 1 Ki. 4. 3; Jer. 8. 8; 36. 10, 12, 26). To this legitimate work the scribes added a record of rabbinical decisions on questions of ritual (Halachoth); the new code resulting from those decisions (Mishna); the Hebrew sacred legends (Gemara, forming with the Mishna the Talmud); commentaries on the O.T. (Midrashim); reasonings upon these (Hagada); and, finally, mystical interpretations which found in Scripture meanings other than the grammatical, lexical, and obvious ones (the Kabbala); not unlike the allegorical method of Origen, or the modern Protestant "spiritualizing" interpretation. In our Lord's time, to receive this mass of writing superposed upon the Scriptures was to be orthodox; to return to the Scriptures themselves was heterodoxy—our Lord's most serious offence.

<sup>3</sup> The words quoted are in Hos. 11. 1, and the passage illustrates the truth that prophetic utterances often have a latent and deeper meaning than at first appears. Israel, nationally, was a "son" (Ex. 4. 22), but Christ was the greater "Son." See Rom. 9. 4, 5; Isa. 41. 8, with Isa. 42. 1-4; 52. 13, 14, where the servant-nation and the Servant-Son are both in view.

was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying,

The return from Egypt to Nazareth. (Cf. Lk. 2. 39, 40.)

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an <sup>b</sup>angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,

20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that <sup>c</sup>Archelaus did reign in Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

CHAPTER 3.

Ministry of John the Baptist (Mk. 1. 3-8; Lk. 3. 2-17; John 1. 6-8, 19-28).

IN those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judæa,

2 And <sup>d</sup>saying, <sup>e</sup>Repent ye: for <sup>f</sup>the <sup>1</sup>kingdom of heaven is <sup>g</sup>at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the <sup>h</sup>Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their <sup>i</sup>sins.

7 But when he saw many of the <sup>2</sup>Pharisees and <sup>3</sup>Sadducees come to

<sup>1</sup> (1) The phrase, kingdom of heaven (lit. of the heavens), is peculiar to Matthew and signifies the Messianic earth rule of Jesus Christ, the Son of David. It is called the kingdom of the heavens because it is the rule of the heavens over the earth (Mt. 6. 10). The phrase is derived from Daniel, where it is defined (Dan. 2. 34-36, 44; 7. 23-27) as the kingdom which "the God of heaven" will set up after the destruction by "the stone cut out without hands" of the Gentile world-system. It is the kingdom covenanted to David's seed (2 Sam. 7. 7-10, refs.); described in the prophets (Zech. 12. 8, note); and confirmed to Jesus the Christ, the Son of Mary, through the angel Gabriel (Lk. 1. 32, 33).

(2) The kingdom of heaven has three aspects in Matthew: (a) "at hand" from the beginning of the ministry of John the Baptist (Mt. 3. 2) to the virtual rejection of the King, and the announcement of the new brotherhood (Mt. 12. 46-50); (b) in seven "mysteries of the kingdom of heaven," to be fulfilled during the present age (Mt. 13. 1-52), to which are to be added the parables of the kingdom of heaven which were spoken after those of Mt. 13., and which have to do with the sphere of Christian profession during this age; (c) the prophetic aspect—the kingdom to be set up after the return of the King in glory (Mt. 24. 29-25. 46; Lk. 19. 12-19; Acts 15. 14-17). See "Kingdom (N.T.);" (Lk. 1. 33; 1 Cor. 15. 28). Cf. "Kingdom of God," Mt. 6. 33, note.

<sup>2</sup> So called from a Heb. word meaning "separate." After the ministry of the post-exilic prophets ceased, godly men called "Chasidim" (saints) arose who sought to keep alive reverence for the law amongst the descendants of the Jews who returned from the Babylonian captivity. This movement degenerated into the Pharisaism of our Lord's day—a letter-strictness which overlaid the law with traditional interpretations held to have been communicated by Jehovah to Moses as oral explanations of equal authority with the law itself (cf. Mt. 15. 2, 3; Mk. 7. 8-13; Gal. 1. 14).

The Pharisees were strictly a sect. A member was "chaber" (i.e. "knit together," Jud. 20. 11), and took an obligation to remain true to the principles of Pharisaism. They were correct, moral, zealous, and self-denying, but self-righteous (Lk. 18. 9), and destitute of the sense of sin and need (Lk. 7. 39). They were the foremost persecutors of Jesus Christ and the objects of His unsparing denunciation (e.g. Mt. 23. 13-29; Lk. 11. 42, 43).

<sup>3</sup> Not strictly a sect, but rather those amongst the Jews who denied the existence of angels or other spirits, and all miracle, especially the resurrection. They were his baptism, he said unto them, O<sup>a</sup> generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for <sup>b</sup>repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the <sup>c</sup>Holy Ghost, and with fire:

12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

Baptism of Jesus (Mk. 1. 9-11; Lk. 3. 21, 22; cf. John 1. 31-34).

13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John <sup>d</sup>forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

CHAPTER 4.

The temptation of Jesus (Mk. 1. 12, 13; Lk. 4. 1-13; cf. Gen. 3. 6).

2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, <sup>5</sup>Man shall not live by bread alone, but by <sup>6</sup>every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of <sup>7</sup>God.

the religious rationalists of the time (Mk. 12. 18-23; Acts 5. 15-17; 23. 8), and strongly entrenched in the Sanhedrin and priesthood (Acts 4. 1; 5. 17). They are identified with no affirmative doctrine, but were mere deniers of the supernatural.

<sup>1</sup> Why one who needed no repentance should insist upon receiving a rite which signified confession (v. 6) and repentance (v. 11) is nowhere directly explained. It may be suggested: (1) That Jesus was now to receive His anointing with the Holy Spirit (v. 16) unto His threefold office of Prophet, Priest, and King. In the Levitical order (Ex. 29. 4-7) the high priest was first washed, then anointed. While Christ's priestly work did not begin till He "offered Himself without spot to God" (Heb. 9. 14), and His full manifestation as the King-Priest after the order of Melchisedek awaits the kingdom (Gen. 14. 18, note), yet He was then anointed, once for all. (2) But John's baptism was the voice of God to Israel, and the believing remnant responded (v. 5). It was an act of righteousness on the part of Him who had become, as to the flesh, an Israelite, to take His place with this believing remnant.

<sup>3</sup> The temptation of Christ, the "last Adam" (1 Cor. 15. 45), is best understood when contrasted with that of "the first man Adam." Adam was tempted in his place of lord of creation, a lordship with but one reservation, the knowledge of good and evil (Gen. 1. 26; 2. 16, 17). Through the woman he was tempted to add that also to his dominion. Falling, he lost all. But Christ had taken the place of a lowly Servant, acting only from and in obedience to the Father (Phil. 2. 5-8; John 5. 19; 6. 57; 8. 28, 54. Cf. Isa. 41. 8, note), that He might redeem a fallen race and a creation under the curse (Gen. 3. 17-19; Rom. 8. 19-23). Satan's one object in the threefold temptation was to induce Christ to act from Himself, in independency of His Father. The first two temptations were a challenge to Christ

5 Then the devil taketh him up into the <sup>1</sup>holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his <sup>b</sup>angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the <sup>d</sup>Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the <sup>2</sup>world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the <sup>e</sup>Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

from the god of this world to prove Himself indeed the Son of God (vs. 3, 6). The third was the offer of the usurping prince of this world to divest himself of that which rightfully belonged to Christ as Son of man and Son of David, on the condition that He accept the sceptre on Satan's world-principles (cf. John 18. 36, note; Rev. 13. 8). Christ defeated Satan by a means open to His humblest follower, the intelligent use of the word of God (vs. 4, 7). In his second temptation Satan also used Scripture, but a promise available only to one in the path of obedience. The scene gives emphasis to the vital importance of "rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Tim. 2. 15).

When used in the N.T. of humanity, the "world" of men, it is organized humanity—humanity in families, tribes, nations—which is meant. The word for chaotic, unorganized humanity—the mere mass of men—is thalassa, the "sea" of men (e.g. Rev. 13. 1). For "world" (kosmos) in the bad ethical sense, see John 7. 7, refs.

<sup>3</sup> "At hand" is never a positive affirmation that the person or thing said to be "at hand" will immediately appear, but only that no known or predicted event must intervene. When Christ appeared to the Jewish people, the next thing, in the order of revelation as it then stood, should have been the setting up of the Davidic kingdom. In the knowledge of God, not yet disclosed, lay the rejection of the kingdom (and King), the long period of the mystery-form of the kingdom, the world-wide preaching of the cross, and the out-calling of the Church. But this was as yet locked up in the secret counsels of God (Mt. 13. 11, 17; Eph. 3. 3-10).

saw other two brethren, <sup>1</sup>James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a <sup>a</sup>ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the <sup>b</sup>gospel of the <sup>c</sup>kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria; and they <sup>d</sup>brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were <sup>e</sup>possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great <sup>f</sup>multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judæa, and from beyond Jordan.

<sup>1</sup> Two persons are called by this name in the N.T.: (1) James the son of Zebedee, an apostle (Mt. 10. 2), and the brother of the Apostle John, apart from whom he is never mentioned, and with whom, together with Peter, he was admitted to the especial intimacy of our Lord (Mt. 17. 1; Mk. 5. 37; 9. 2; 14. 33). He was martyred by Herod (Acts 12. 2). (2) A son of Alphæus (or Cleopas) and of Mary the sister of Mary the mother of Jesus (see Mt. 1. 16, note), and brother of Joses (Mk. 15. 40). He was, therefore, a cousin of the Lord Jesus. He is called James "the less" (Mk. 15. 40; lit. little, i.e. of shorter stature than James the son of Zebedee). He was an apostle (Mt. 10. 3). It has been conjectured that "Lebbæus, whose surname was Thaddæus" (Mt. 10. 3) was identical with the Judas of Lk. 6. 16, who is there called "of [i.e. 'son' or 'brother' as it has been variously translated] James." A Juda is mentioned with a James and Joses and Simon in Mk. 6. 3 as "brother" of our Lord (see Mt. 13. 55, margin). The Gospels mention no other James who could be called the brother of the Lord Jesus, but James the less was certainly the son of Alphæus and Mary the sister of our Lord's mother. The conclusion seems, therefore, most probable that Mt. 10. 3; 13. 55; Mk. 3. 18; 6. 3; Lk. 6. 15; Acts 1. 13; 12. 17; 15. 13; 21. 18; Gal. 1. 19; 2. 9, 12; and Jas. 1. 1 refer to James the less, son of Alphæus and Mary, and cousin, or, according to Jewish usage, "brother" of the Lord Jesus. He was the author of the Epistle of James.

<sup>2</sup> Having announced the kingdom of heaven as "at hand," the King, in Mt. 5.-7., declares the principles of the kingdom. The Sermon on the Mount has a twofold application: (1) Literally to the kingdom. In this sense it gives the divine constitution for the righteous government of the earth. Whenever the #### Relation of Christ to the law.

17 Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, <sup>a</sup>one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from <sup>b</sup>the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

21 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, "Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of <sup>2</sup>hell fire.

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be rec-kingdom of heaven is established on earth it will be according to that constitution, which may be regarded as an explanation of the word "righteousness" as used by the prophets in describing the kingdom (e. g. Isa. 11. 4, 5; 32. 1; Dan. 9. 24). In this sense the Sermon on the Mount is pure law, and transfers the offence from the overt act to the motive (Mt. 5. 21, 22, 27, 28). Here lies the deeper reason why the Jews rejected the kingdom. They had reduced "righteousness" to mere ceremonialism, and the Old Testament idea of the kingdom to a mere affair of outward splendour and power. They were never rebuked for expecting a visible and powerful kingdom, but the words of the prophets should have prepared them to expect also that only the poor in spirit and the meek could share in it (e. g. Isa. 11. 4). The seventy-second Psalm, which was universally received by them as a description of the kingdom, was full of this. For these reasons the Sermon on the Mount in its primary application gives neither the privilege nor the duty of the Church. These are found in the Epistles. Under the law of the kingdom, for example, no one may hope for forgiveness who has not first forgiven (Mt. 6. 12, 14, 15). Under grace the Christian is exhorted to forgive because he is already forgiven (Eph. 4. 30-32).

(2) But there is a beautiful moral application to the Christian. It always remains true that the poor in spirit, rather than the proud, are blessed, and those who mourn because of their sins, and who are meek in the consciousness of them, will hunger and thirst after righteousness, and hungering will be filled. The merciful are "blessed," the pure in heart do "see God." These principles fundamentally reappear in the teaching of the Epistles.

<sup>1</sup> Christ's relation to the law of Moses may be thus summarized: (1) He was made under the law (Gal. 4. 4); (2) He lived in perfect obedience to the law (John 8. 46; Mt. 17. 5; 1 Pet. 2. 21-23); (3) He was a minister of the law to the Jews, clearing it from rabbinical sophistries, enforcing it in all its pitiless severity upon those who professed to obey it (e. g. Lk. 10. 25-37), but confirming the promises made to the fathers under the Mosaic Covenant (Rom. 15. 8); (4) He fulfilled the types of the law by His holy life and sacrificial death (Heb. 9. 11-26); (5) He bore, vicariously, the curse of the law that the Abrahamic Covenant might avail all who believe (Gal. 3. 13, 14); (6) He brought out by His redemption all who believe from the place of servants under the law into the place of sons (Gal. 4. 1-7); (7) He mediated by His blood the New Covenant of assurance and grace in which all believers stand (Rom. 5. 2; Heb. 8. 6-13), so establishing the "law of Christ" (Gal. 6. 2; refs.) with its precepts of higher exaltation made possible by the indwelling Spirit.

<sup>2</sup> Gr. Geenna = Gehenna, the place in the valley of Hinnom where, anciently, human sacrifices were offered (2 Chr. 33. 6; Jer. 7. 31). The word occurs, Mt. 5. 22, 29, 30; 10. 28; 18. 9; 23. 15, 33; Mk. 9. 43, 45, 47; Lk. 12. 5; Jas. 3. 6. In every 29 And if thy right eye <sup>f</sup>offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

TAKE heed that ye do not your <sup>w</sup>alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no <sup>x</sup>reward of your Father which is in heaven.

instance except the last the word comes from the lips of Jesus Christ in most solemn warning of the consequences of sin. He describes it as the place where "their" worm never dies and of fire never to be quenched. The expression is identical in meaning with "lake of fire" (Rev. 19. 20; 20. 10, 14, 15). See "Death, the second" (John 8. 24; Rev. 21. 8); also Lk. 16. 23, note.

<sup>1</sup> The word implies full development, growth into maturity of godliness, not sinless perfection. See Eph. 4. 12, 13. In this passage the Father's kindness, not His sinlessness, is the point in question. Cf. Lk. 6. 35, 36.

2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their <sup>a</sup>reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy <sup>b</sup>left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy <sup>c</sup>Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their <sup>d</sup>reward.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father <sup>h</sup>knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

22 The <sup>v</sup>light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 No man can serve <sup>w</sup>two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

The cure of anxiety: trust in the Father's care.

25 Therefore I say unto you, <sup>x</sup>Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one <sup>y</sup>cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the <sup>1</sup> This is legal ground. Cf. Eph. 4. 32, which is grace. Under law forgiveness is conditioned upon a like spirit in us; under grace we are forgiven for Christ's sake, and exhorted to forgive because we have been forgiven. See Mt. 18. 32; 26. 28, note.

field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Encouragements to pray.
(See Lk. 11. 1-13, note.)

7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

<sup>1</sup> The kingdom of God is to be distinguished from the kingdom of heaven (Mt. 3. 2, note) in five respects: (1) The kingdom of God is universal, including all moral intelligences willingly subject to the will of God, whether angels, the Church, or saints of past or future dispensations (Lk. 13. 28, 29; Heb. 12. 22, 23); while the kingdom of heaven is Messianic, mediatorial, and Davidic, and has for its object the establishment of the kingdom of God in the earth (Mt. 3. 2, note; 1 Cor. 15. 24, 25). (2) The kingdom of God is entered only by the new birth (John 3. 3, 5-7); the kingdom of heaven, during this age, is the sphere of a profession which may be real or false (Mt. 13. 3, note; 25. 1, 11, 12). (3) Since the kingdom of heaven is the earthly sphere of the universal kingdom of God, the two have almost all things in common. For this reason many parables and other teachings are spoken of the kingdom of heaven in Matthew, and of the kingdom of God in Mark and Luke. It is the omissions which are significant. The parables of the wheat and tares, and of the net (Mt. 13. 24-30, 36-43, 47-50) are not spoken of the kingdom of God. In that kingdom there are neither tares nor bad fish. But the parable of the leaven (Mt. 13. 33) is spoken of the kingdom of God also, for, alas, even the true doctrines of the kingdom are leavened with the errors of which the Pharisees, Sadducees, and the Herodians were the representatives. (See Mt. 13. 33, note.) (4) The kingdom of God "comes not with outward show" (Lk. 17. 20), but is chiefly that which is inward and spiritual (Rom. 14. 17); while the kingdom of heaven is organic, and is to be manifested in glory on the earth. (See "Kingdom (O.T.)," Zech. 12. 8, note; (N.T.), Lk. 1. 31-33; 1 Cor. 15. 24, note; Mt. 17. 2, note.) (5) The kingdom of heaven merges into the kingdom of God when Christ, having "put all enemies under His feet," "shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father" (1 Cor. 15. 24-28). Cf. Mt. 3. 2, note.

Summary of O.T. righteousness.

12 Therefore all things <sup>a</sup>whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

The two ways. (Cf. Psa. 1.)

13 Enter ye in at the <sup>b</sup>strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto <sup>c</sup>life, and few there be that find it.

Warning against false teachers: the test.

15 Beware of <sup>d</sup>false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is <sup>e</sup>hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

The danger of profession without faith.

21 Not every one that <sup>f</sup>saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the <sup>g</sup>kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out <sup>h</sup>devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: <sup>i</sup>depart from me, ye that <sup>j</sup>work <sup>k</sup>iniquity.

The two foundations. (Cf. Lk. 6. 47-49.)

24 Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will <sup>l</sup>liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a <sup>m</sup>rock:

25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew,

<sup>1</sup> Devils. lit. demons. To the reality and personality of demons the N.T. Scriptures bear abundant testimony. As to their origin nothing is clearly revealed, but they are not to be confounded with the angels mentioned in 2 Pet. 2. 4; Jude 6. Summary: Demons are spirits (Mt. 12. 43, 45); are Satan's emissaries (Mt. 12. 26, 27; 25. 41); and so numerous as to make Satan's power practically ubiquitous (Mk. 5. 9). They are capable of entering and controlling both men and beasts (Mk. 5. 8, 11-13), and earnestly seek embodiment, without which, apparently, they are powerless for evil (Mt. 12. 43, 44; Mk. 5. 10-12). Demon influence and demon possession are discriminated in the N.T. Instances of the latter are Mt. 4. 24; 8. 16, 28, 33; 9. 32; 12. 22; Mk. 1. 32; 5. 15, 16, 18; Lk. 8. 36; Acts 8. 7; 16. 16. They are unclean, sullen, violent, and malicious (Mt. 8. 28; 9. 33; 10. 1; 12. 43; Mk. 1. 23; 5. 3-5; 9. 17, 20; Lk. 6. 18; 9. 39). They know Jesus Christ as Most High God, and recognize His supreme authority (Mt. 8. 31, 32; Mk. 1. 24; Acts 19. 15; Jas. 2. 19). They know their eternal fate to be one of torment (Mt. 8. 29; Lk. 8. 31). They inflict physical maladies (Mt. 12. 22; 17. 15-18; Lk. 13. 16), but mental disease is to be distinguished from the disorder of mind due to demoniacal control. Demon influence may manifest itself in religious asceticism and formalism (1 Tim. 4. 1-3), degenerating into uncleanness (2 Pet. 2. 10-12). The sign of demon influence in religion is departing from the faith, i.e. the body of revealed truth in the Scriptures (1 Tim. 4. 1). The demons maintain especially a conflict with believers who would be spiritual (Eph. 6. 12; 1 Tim. 4. 1-3). All unbelievers are open to demon possession (Eph. 2. 2). The believer's resources are, prayer and bodily control (Mt. 17. 21), "the whole armour of God" (Eph. 6. 13-18). Exorcism in the name of Jesus Christ (Acts 16. 18) was practised for demon possession. One of the awful features of the apocalyptic judgments in which this age will end is an irruption of demons out of the abyss (Rev. 9. 1-11).

and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were <sup>a</sup>astonished at his <sup>b</sup>doctrine:

29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Jesus heals a leper (Mk. 1. 40; Lk. 5. 12-14).

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his <sup>e</sup>leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the <sup>f</sup>gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of <sup>j</sup>heaven.

<sup>1</sup> The King, having in Chapters 5.-7. declared the principles of the kingdom, makes proof, in Chapters 8., 9., of His power to banish from the earth the consequences of sin, and to control the elements of nature.

<sup>2</sup> Gr. kurios. The first occurrence of the word as applied to Jesus with His evident sanction. In itself the word means "master," and is so used of mere human relationships in, e.g., Mt. 6. 24; 15. 27; Mk. 13. 35; Eph. 6. 9. Both uses, divine and human, are brought together in Col. 4. 1. It is the Gr. equivalent of the Heb. Adonai (see Gen. 15. 2, note), and is so used by Jesus Christ in Mt. 22. 43-45. In the N.T. the distinctive uses of kurios (Lord) are: (1) As the N.T. translation of the Heb. Jehovah (LORD), e.g. Mt. 1. 20, 22; 2. 15; 3. 3; 4. 7, 10; 11. 25; 21. 9; Mk. 12. 29, 30; Lk. 1. 68; 2. 9. (2) Jesus Himself so uses kurios, e.g. Mt. 4. 7, 10; 11. 25; Mk. 12. 11, etc. (3) But the great use of kurios is as the divine title of Jesus, the Christ. In this sense it occurs in the N.T. 663 times. That the intent is to identify Jesus Christ with the O.T. Deity is evident from Mt. 3. 3; 12. 8; 21. 9 (Psa. 118. 26); 22. 43-45; Lk. 1. 43; John 8. 58; 14. 8-10; 20. 28; Acts 9. 5; 13. 33 (Psa. 2.). See John 20. 28, note.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and <sup>b</sup>let the <sup>c</sup>dead bury their dead.

Jesus stills the waves (Mk. 4. 36-41; Lk. 8. 22-25).

23 And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves; but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, <sup>d</sup>saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of <sup>e</sup>little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

Jesus casts out demons at Gadara (Mk. 5. 1-21; Lk. 8. 26-40).

28 And when he was come to the other side into the country of the <sup>f</sup>Gergesenes, there met him two <sup>g</sup>possessed with <sup>h</sup>devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, <sup>i</sup>What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to <sup>j</sup>torment us before the time?

CHAPTER 9.

Jesus returns to Capernaum: heals the palsied man (Mk. 2. 3-12; Lk. 5. 18-26).

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his <sup>n</sup>own city.

2 And, behold, they <sup>o</sup>brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their <sup>p</sup>faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be <sup>q</sup>forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to <sup>r</sup>say, Thy <sup>s</sup>sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the <sup>t</sup>Son of man hath <sup>u</sup>power on earth

<sup>1</sup> Cf. Ezk. 2. 1, note. Our Lord thus designates Himself about eighty times. It is His racial name as the representative Man, in the sense of 1 Cor. 15. 45-47; as Son of David is distinctively His Jewish name, and Son of God His divine name. Our Lord constantly uses this term as implying that His mission (e.g. Mt. 11. 19; Lk. 19. 10), His death and resurrection (e.g. Mt. 12. 40; 20. 18; 26. 2), and His second coming (e.g. Mt. 24. 37-44; Lk. 12. 40), transcended in scope and result all merely Jewish limitations. When Nathanael confesses Him as "King of Israel," our Lord's answer is, "Thou shalt see greater things . . . the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man." When His messengers are cast out by the Jews, His thought leaps forward to the time when the Son of man shall come, not then to Israel only but to the race (Mt. 10. 5, 6 with 5. 23). It is in this name, also, that universal judgment is committed to Him (John 5. 22-27). It is also a name indicating that in Him is fulfilled the O.T. foreview of blessing through a coming man (Gen. 1. 26, note; 3. 15; 12. 3; Psalms 8. 4; 80. 17; Isaiah 7. 14; 9. 6, 7; 32. 2; Zechariah 13. 7).

to forgive <sup>a</sup>sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 <sup>b</sup>And he arose, and departed to his house.

Jesus answers the Pharisees (Mk. 2. 15-20; Lk. 5. 29-35).

10 And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners <sup>e</sup>came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the <sup>f</sup>Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, <sup>g</sup>Why eateth your Master with publicans and <sup>a</sup>sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be <sup>h</sup>whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, <sup>i</sup>I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the <sup>j</sup>righteous, but sinners to <sup>k</sup>repentance.

14 Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the <sup>l</sup>bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new <sup>m</sup>cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old <sup>n</sup>bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

Jesus heals the woman with an issue of blood, and raises the daughter of a ruler (Jairus) (Mk. 5. 22-43; Lk. 8. 41-56).

18 While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a <sup>o</sup>certain ruler, and worshipped him, <sup>p</sup>saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and <sup>q</sup>touched the hem of his garment: <sup>r</sup>1 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy <sup>s</sup>faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise,

24 He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but <sup>t</sup>sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and <sup>u</sup>took her by the hand, and the maid <sup>v</sup>arose.

26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

Two blind men healed: a demon cast out.

27 And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and <sup>w</sup>saying, <sup>x</sup>Thou son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your <sup>y</sup>faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straightly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man <sup>z</sup>possessed with a <sup>v</sup>devil.

33 And when the <sup>v</sup>devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out <sup>a</sup>devils through the prince of the devils.

Jesus preaches and heals in Galilee (Mk. 6. 5, 6).

35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the <sup>b</sup>gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;

38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 Now the <sup>e</sup>names of the twelve <sup>f</sup>apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; <sup>g</sup>James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphæus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddæus;

4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the <sup>h</sup>Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not:

6 But go rather to the <sup>i</sup>lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 And as ye go, preach, saying, The <sup>j</sup>kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 <sup>k</sup>Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, <sup>l</sup>raise the dead, cast out <sup>m</sup>devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

9 <sup>n</sup>Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses,

10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the <sup>o</sup>workman is worthy of his meat.

1 The word apostle, = "one sent forth," is used of our Lord (Heb. 3. 1). Elsewhere it is used of the twelve who were called to that office by our Lord during His earth ministry; of Paul, called to the apostleship by the risen and ascended Lord, and of Barnabas (Acts 14. 14), specially designated by the Holy Spirit (Acts 13. 2). Of Matthias, chosen by lot by the eleven to take the place of Judas Iscariot (Acts 1. 16-26), it is said: "And he was numbered with the eleven" (Acts 1. 26). See Acts 1. 26.

The "signs of an apostle" were: (1) They were chosen directly by the Lord Himself, or, as in the case of Barnabas, by the Holy Spirit (Mt. 10. 1, 2; Mk. 3. 13, 14; Lk. 6. 13; Acts 9. 6, 15; 13. 2; 22. 10, 14, 15; Rom. 1. 1). (2) They were endued with sign gifts, miraculous powers which were the divine credentials of their office (Mt. 10. 1; Acts 5. 15, 16; 16. 16-18; 28. 8, 9). (3) Their relation to the kingdom was that of heralds, announcing, to Israel only (Mt. 10. 5, 6), the kingdom as at hand (Mt. 4. 17, note), and manifesting kingdom powers (Mt. 10. 7, 8). (4) To one of them, Peter, the keys of the kingdom of heaven, viewed as the sphere of Christian profession, as in Mt. 13., were given (Mt. 16. 19). (5) Their future relation to the kingdom will be that of judges over the twelve tribes (Mt. 19. 28). (6) Consequent upon the rejection of the kingdom, and the revelation of the mystery hid in God (Mt. 16. 18; Eph. 3. 1-12), the Church, the apostolic office was invested with a new endowment, the baptism with the Holy Spirit (Acts 2. 1-4); a new power, that of imparting the Spirit to Jewish-Christian believers; a new relation, that of foundation stones of the new temple (Eph. 2. 20-22); and a new function, that of preaching the glad tidings of salvation through a crucified and risen Lord to Jew and Gentile alike. (7) The indispensable qualification of an apostle was that he should have been an eye-witness of the resurrection (Acts 1. 22; 1 Cor. 9. 1).

<sup>2</sup>Cf. Mk. 6. 8, 9; Lk. 9. 3. The central thought here, urgency, must be kept in mind. The emphasis is upon "provide." Time is not to be taken to search for additional staves or shoes. The disciples were to go in their ordinary sandals, with such staff as they might have, or with none. Cf. Paul, Rom. 1. 15.

11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, <sup>q</sup>nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, <sup>b</sup>shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, It shall be more <sup>r</sup>tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrhah <sup>d</sup>in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 Behold, I <sup>l</sup>send you forth as <sup>e</sup>sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as <sup>f</sup>serpents, and harmless as <sup>g</sup>doves.

17 But <sup>h</sup>beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;

18 And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

19 But when they deliver you up, <sup>i</sup>take no thought how or what ye shall speak: <sup>j</sup>for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 For it is not ye that speak, but the <sup>k</sup>Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against <sup>l</sup>their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And ye shall be hated of all <sup>m</sup>men for my name's sake: but he that <sup>n</sup>endureth to the end shall be saved.

<sup>1</sup> The scope of verses 16-23 reaches beyond the personal ministry of the twelve, covering in a general sense the sphere of service during the present age. Verse 23 has in view the preaching of the remnant (Isa. 1. 9; Rom. 11. 5, note) in the tribulation (Psa. 2. 5; Rev. 7. 14, note), and immediately preceding the return of Christ in glory (Deut. 30. 3; Acts 1. 9-11, note). The remnant then will not have gone over the cities of Israel till the Lord comes.

<sup>2</sup> Cf. John 14. 27. Peace is spoken of in Scripture in three ways: (1) "Peace with God" (Rom. 5. 1); this is the work of Christ into which the individual enters by faith (Eph. 2. 14-17; Rom. 5. 1). (2) "The peace of God" (Phil. 4. 7); inward peace, the state of soul of that believer who, having entered into peace with God through faith in Christ, has also committed to God through prayer and supplication with thanksgiving all his anxieties (Lk. 7. 50; Phil. 4. 6). (3) Peace "on earth" (Lk. 2. 14; Psa. 42. 7; 85. 10; Isa. 9. 6, 7; 11. 1-12); the universal prevalence of peace in the earth under the kingdom. Mt. 10. 34 was Christ's warning that the truth which He was proclaiming would not bring in the kingdom-age of peace, but conflict rather.

36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not <sup>a</sup>worthy of me.

38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's <sup>c</sup>reward; and he that receiveth a <sup>d</sup>righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.

42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a <sup>e</sup>cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

7 And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, <sup>l</sup>What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, <sup>m</sup>Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is <sup>n</sup>least in the <sup>o</sup>kingdom of heaven is <sup>p</sup>greater than he.

12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven <sup>q</sup>suffereth <sup>r</sup>violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 <sup>s</sup>For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, <sup>t</sup>this is <sup>u</sup>Elias, which was for to come.

15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a <sup>v</sup>devil.

<sup>1</sup> Positionally greater, not morally. John Baptist was as great, morally, as any man "born of woman," but as to the kingdom he but announced it at hand. The kingdom did not then come, but was rejected, and John was martyred, and the King presently crucified. The least in the kingdom when it is set up in glory (see "Kingdom (N.T.)," Lk. 1. 31-33; 1 Cor. 15. 24) will be in the fullness of power and glory. It is not heaven which is in question, but Messiah's kingdom. (See Mt. 3. 2, note; 6. 33, note.)

<sup>2</sup> It has been much disputed whether the "violence" here is external, as against the kingdom in the persons of John the Baptist and Jesus; or that, considering the opposition of the scribes and Pharisees, only the violently resolute would press into it. Both things are true. The King and His herald suffered violence, and this is the primary and greater meaning, but also, some were resolutely becoming disciples. (Cf. Lk. 16. 16.)

Jesus, rejected, predicts judgment.

20 <sup>1</sup>Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they <sup>b</sup>repented not:

21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the <sup>c</sup>day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to <sup>d</sup>hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

CHAPTER 12.

Jesus declares himself Lord of the sabbath (Mk. 2. 23-28; Lk. 6. 1-5).

AT that time Jesus went on the <sup>3j</sup>sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

<sup>2</sup> The new message of Jesus. The rejected King now turns from the rejecting nation and offers, not the kingdom, but rest and service to such in the nation as are conscious of need. It is a pivotal point in the ministry of Jesus.

<sup>3</sup> (1) The sabbath ("cessation") appears in Scripture as the day of God's rest in the finished work of creation (Gen. 2. 2, 3). For 2500 years of human life absolutely no mention is made of it. At Sinai the sabbath was revealed (Neh. 9. 13, 14); made a part of the law (Ex. 20. 8-11); and invested with the character of a "sign" between Jehovah and Israel, a perpetual reminder to Israel of their separation to God (Ex. 31. 13-17). It was observed by complete rest (Ex. 35. 2, 3), and by Jehovah's express order a man was put to death for gathering sticks on the sabbath day (Num. 15. 32-36). Apart from maintaining the continued burnt-offering (Num. 28. 9), and its connection with the annual feasts (Ex. 12. 16; Lev. 23. 3, 8; Num. 28. 25), the seventh-day sabbath was never made a day of sacrifice, worship, or any manner of religious service. It was simply and only a day of complete rest for man and beast, a humane provision for man's needs. In Christ's words, "The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath" (Mk. 2. 27). (2) Our Lord found the observance of the day encrusted with rabbinical evasions (Mt. 12. 2) and restrictions, wholly unknown to the law, so that He was Himself held to be a sabbath-breaker by the religious authorities of the time. The sabbath will be again observed during the kingdom-age (Isa. 66. 23). (3) The Christian first day perpetuates in the dispensation of grace the principle that one seventh of the time is especially sacred, but in all other respects is in contrast with the sabbath. One is the seventh day, the other the first. The sabbath commemorates God's creation rest, the first day Christ's resurrection. On the seventh day God rested, on the first day Christ

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not <sup>a</sup>read <sup>1</sup>what <sup>b</sup>David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the <sup>c</sup>shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the <sup>d</sup>priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is <sup>e</sup>one <sup>e</sup>greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have <sup>f</sup>mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the <sup>g</sup>Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

18 Behold my <sup>i</sup>servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my <sup>k</sup>spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the <sup>l</sup>Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles <sup>m</sup>trust.

A demoniac healed: the Pharisees blaspheme (Mk. 3. 22-30; Lk. 11. 14-23).

22 Then was brought unto him one <sup>n</sup>possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, inasmuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the <sup>o</sup>son of David?

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out <sup>p</sup>devils, but by <sup>q</sup>Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom was ceaselessly active. The sabbath commemorates a finished creation, the first day a finished redemption. The sabbath was a day of legal obligation, the first day one of voluntary worship and service. The sabbath is mentioned in the Acts only in connection with the Jews, and in the rest of the N.T. but twice (Col. 2. 16; Heb. 4. 4). In these passages the seventh-day sabbath is explained to be to the Christian not a day to be observed, but a type of the present rest into which he enters when "he also ceases from his own works" and trusts Christ.

<sup>1</sup> Jesus' action (Mt. 12. 1-7) is highly significant. "What David did" refers to the time of his rejection and persecution by Saul (1 Sam. 21. 6). Jesus here is not so much the rejected Saviour as the rejected King; hence the reference to David.

<sup>2</sup> This too is most significant. The rejected King of Israel will turn to the Gentiles (cf. Mt. 10. 5, 6). In fulfilment this awaited the official rejection, crucifixion, and resurrection of Christ, and the final rejection of the risen Christ (Lk. 24. 46, 47; Acts 9. 15; 13. 46; 28. 25-28; Rom. 11. 11).

divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if <sup>a</sup>Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your <sup>b</sup>children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

The unpardonable sin: ascribing to Satan the works of the Spirit (Mk. 3. 29, 30).

31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of <sup>c</sup>sin and blasphemy shall be <sup>d</sup>forgiven unto men: but the <sup>e</sup>blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be <sup>d</sup>forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this <sup>f</sup>world, neither in the world to come.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the <sup>j</sup>day of judgment.

fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the <sup>3d</sup>mysteries of the <sup>e</sup>kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: <sup>f</sup>because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

Lord intimates the formation of the new family of faith which, overstepping mere racial claims, receives "whosoever" will be His disciple (vs. 49, 50. Cf. John 6. 28, 29).

<sup>1</sup> The seven parables of Mt. 13., called by our Lord "mysteries of the kingdom of heaven" (v. 11), taken together, describe the result of the presence of the Gospel in the world during the present age, that is, the time of seed-sowing which began with our Lord's personal ministry, and ends with the "harvest" (vs. 40-43). Briefly, that result is the mingled tares and wheat, good fish and bad, in the sphere of Christian profession. It is Christendom.

<sup>2</sup> The figure marks a new beginning. To labour in God's vineyard (Israel, Isa. 5. 1-7) is one thing, to go forth sowing the seed of the word in a field which is the world, quite another (cf. Mt. 10. 5). One-fourth of the seed takes permanent root, but the result is "wheat" (v. 25; 1 Pet. 1. 23), or "children of the kingdom" (v. 38). This parable (vs. 3-9, 18-23) is treated throughout as foundational to the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven. It is interpreted by our Lord Himself.

<sup>3</sup> A "mystery" in Scripture is a previously hidden truth, now divinely revealed, but in which a supernatural element still remains despite the revelation. The greater mysteries are: (1) The mysteries of the kingdom of heaven (Mt. 13. 3-50); (2) the mystery of Israel's blindness during this age (Rom. 11. 25, with context); (3) the mystery of the translation of living saints at the end of this age (1 Cor. 15. 51, 52; 1 Thes. 4. 14-17); (4) the mystery of the N.T. church as one body composed of Jew and Gentile (Eph. 3. 1-11; Rom. 16. 25; Eph. 6. 19; Col. 4. 3); (5) the mystery of the church as the bride of Christ (Eph. 5. 28-32); (6) the mystery of the inliving Christ (Gal. 2. 20; Col. 1. 26, 27); (7) the "mystery of God even Christ," i.e. Christ as the incarnate fullness of the Godhead embodied, in whom all the divine wisdom for man subsists (Col. 2. 2, 9; 1 Cor. 2. 7); (8) the mystery of the processes by which godlikeness is restored to man (1 Tim. 3. 16); (9) the mystery of iniquity (2 Thes. 2. 7; Mt. 13. 33); (10) the mystery of the seven stars (Rev. 1. 20); (11) the mystery of Babylon (Rev. 17. 5, 7).

14 And in them is fulfilled the <sup>a</sup>prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be <sup>b</sup>converted, and I should heal them.

16 But <sup>blessed</sup> are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, That many <sup>1</sup>prophets and <sup>c</sup>righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the <sup>e</sup>kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and <sup>f</sup>anon with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in him-

Second mystery, the tares among the wheat (vs. 24-30, 36-43).

24 <sup>2</sup>Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, <sup>c</sup>The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed <sup>h</sup>good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed <sup>t</sup>ares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said

<sup>1</sup> The O.T. prophets saw in one blended vision the rejection and crucifixion of the King (see "Christ, sacrifice," Gen. 4. 4; Heb. 10. 18, note), and also His glory as David's Son (Zech. 12. 8, note), but "what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ and the glory that should follow," was not revealed to them—only that the vision was not for themselves (1 Pet. 1. 10-12). That revelation Christ makes in these parables. A period of time is to intervene between His sufferings and His glory. That interval is occupied with the "mysteries of the kingdom of heaven" here described.

<sup>2</sup> This parable (vs. 24-30) is also interpreted by our Lord (vs. 36-43). Here the "good seed" is not the "word," as in the first parable (vs. 19, 23), but rather that which the word has produced (1 Pet. 1. 23), viz.: the children of the kingdom. These are, providentially (v. 37), "sown," i.e. scattered, here and there in the "field" of the "world" (v. 38). The "world" here is both geographical and ethnic—the earth-world, and also the world of men. The wheat of God at once becomes the scene of Satan's activity. Where children of the kingdom are gathered, there, "among the wheat" (vs. 25, 38, 39), Satan "sows" "children of the wicked one," who profess to be children of the kingdom, and in outward ways are so like the true children that only the angels may, in the end, be trusted to separate them (vs. 28-30, 40-43). So great is Satan's power of deception that the tares often really suppose themselves to be children of the kingdom (Mt. 7. 21-23). Many other parables and exhortations have this mingled condition in view (e.g. Mt. 22. 11-14; 25. 1-13, 14-30; Lk. 18. 10-14; Heb. 6. 4-9). Indeed, it characterizes Matthew from Chapter 13. to the end. The parable of the wheat and tares is not a description of the world, but of that which professes to be the kingdom. Mere unbelievers are never called children of the devil, but only religious unbelievers (cf. v. 38; John 8. 38-44; Mt. 23. 15).

unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let <sup>a</sup>both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, <sup>1</sup>Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

Third mystery, the grain of mustard seed (Mk. 4. 30-32).

31 <sup>2</sup>Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The <sup>b</sup>kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of <sup>c</sup>mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a <sup>d</sup>tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

Fourth mystery, the leaven
(Lk. 13. 20, 21).

33 <sup>3</sup>Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto <sup>4</sup>leaven, which a woman took, and <sup>5</sup>hid in <sup>6</sup>three measures of meal, till the <sup>h</sup>whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be <sup>7</sup>fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in

1 The gathering of the tares into bundles for burning does not imply immediate judgment. At the end of this age (v. 40) the tares are set apart for burning, but first the wheat is gathered into the barn (John 14. 3; 1 Thes. 4. 14-17).

2 The parable of the Mustard Seed prefigures the rapid but unsubstantial growth of the mystery form of the kingdom from an insignificant beginning (Acts 1. 15; 2. 41; 1 Cor. 1. 26) to a great place in the earth. The figure of the fowls finding shelter in the branches is drawn from Dan. 4. 20-22. How insecure was such a refuge the context in Daniel shows.

3 That interpretation of the parable of the Leaven (v. 33) which makes (with variation as to details) the leaven to be the Gospel, introduced into the world ("three measures of meal") by the church, and working subtly until the world is converted ("till the whole was leavened") is open to fatal objection: (1) It does violence to the unvarying symbolical meaning of leaven, and especially to the meaning fixed by our Lord Himself (Mt. 16. 6-12; Mk. 8. 15. See "Leaven," Gen. 19. 3; Mt. 13. 33, note). (2) The implication of a converted world in this age ("till the whole was leavened"), is explicitly contradicted by our Lord's interpretation of the parables of the Wheat and Tares, and of the Net. Our Lord presents a picture of a partly converted kingdom in an unconverted world; of good fish and bad in the very kingdom-net itself. (3) The method of the extension of the kingdom is given in the first parable. It is by sowing seed, not by mingling leaven. The symbols have, in Scripture, a meaning fixed by inspired usage. Leaven is the principle of corruption working subtly; is invariably used in a bad sense (see "Leaven," Gen. 19. 3, refs.), and is defined by our Lord as evil doctrine (Mt. 16. 11, 12; Mk. 8. 15). Meal, on the contrary, was used in one of the sweet-savour offerings (Lev. 2. 1-3), and was food for the priests (Lev. 6. 15-17). A woman, in the bad ethical sense, always symbolizes something out of place, religiously (see Zech. 5. 6, note). In Thyatira it was a woman teaching (cf. Rev. 2. 20 with Rev. 17. 1-6). Interpreting the parable by these familiar symbols, it constitutes a warning that the true doctrine, given for the nourishment of the children of the kingdom (Mt. 4. 4; 1 Tim. 4. 6; 1 Pet. 2. 2), would be mingled with corrupt and corrupting false doctrine, and that officially, by the apostate church itself (1 Tim. 4. 1-3; 2 Tim. 2. 17, 18; 4. 3, 4; 2 Pet. 2. 1-3).

4 Summary: (1) Leaven, as a symbolic or typical substance, is always mentioned in the O.T. in an evil sense (Gen. 19. 3, refs.). (2) The use of the word in the N.T. explains its symbolic meaning. It is "malice and wickedness," as contrasted with "sincerity and truth" (1 Cor. 5. 6-8). It is evil doctrine (Mt. 16. 12) in its three-fold form of Pharisaism, Sadduceism, and Herodianism (Mt. 16. 6; Mk. 8. 15). The leaven of the Pharisees was externalism in religion (Mt. 23. 14, 16, 23-28); of the Sadducees, scepticism as to the supernatural and as to the Scriptures (Mt. 22. 23, 29); of the Herodians, worldliness—a Herod party amongst the Jews (Mt. 22. 16-21; Mk. 3. 6). (3) The use of the word in Mt. 13. 33 is congruous with its universal meaning.

The second mystery explained.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, <sup>b</sup>Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 The field is the <sup>c</sup>world; the good seed are the children of the <sup>d</sup>kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the <sup>e</sup>devil; the harvest is the <sup>f</sup>end of the world; and the reapers are the <sup>g</sup>angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the <sup>h</sup>end of this world.

41 The <sup>i</sup>Son of man shall send forth his <sup>j</sup>angels, and they shall <sup>k</sup>gather out of his <sup>l</sup>kingdom all things that offend, and <sup>m</sup>them which do <sup>n</sup>iniquity;

42 And shall cast them into a fur-

43 <sup>1</sup>Then shall the <sup>m</sup>righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. <sup>n</sup>Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Fifth mystery, the hid treasure.

44 Again, the <sup>a</sup>kingdom of heaven is like unto <sup>b</sup>treasure <sup>2</sup>hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and <sup>b</sup>selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

Sixth mystery, the pearl.

45 Again, the <sup>a</sup>kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly <sup>3</sup>pearls:

46 Who, when he had found <sup>one</sup> pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

Seventh mystery, the drag-net.

47 Again, <sup>4</sup>the kingdom of <sup>d</sup>heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they

<sup>1</sup> The kingdom does not become the kingdom of the "Father" until Christ, having "put all enemies under His feet," including the last enemy, death, has "delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father" (1 Cor. 15. 24-28; Rev. 20. 2). There is triumph over death at the first resurrection (1 Cor. 15. 54, 55), but death, "the last enemy," is not destroyed till the end of the millennium (Rev. 20. 14).

<sup>2</sup> The interpretation of the parable of the treasure, which makes the buyer of the field to be a sinner who is seeking Christ, has no warrant in the parable itself. The field is defined (v. 38) to be the world. The seeking sinner does not buy, but forsakes, the world to win Christ. Furthermore, the sinner has nothing to sell, nor is Christ for sale, nor is He hidden in a field, nor, having found Christ, does the sinner hide Him again (cf. Mk. 7. 24; Acts 4. 20). At every point the interpretation breaks down.

Our Lord is the buyer at the awful cost of His blood (1 Pet. 1. 18), and Israel, especially Ephraim (Jer. 31. 5-12, 18-20), the lost tribes hidden in "the field," the world (v. 38), is the treasure (Ex. 19. 5; Psa. 135. 4). Again, as in the separation of tares and wheat, the angels are used (Mt. 24. 31; Jer. 16. 16). The divine Merchantman buys the field (world) for the sake of the treasure (v. 44; Rom. 11. 28), beloved for the fathers' sakes, and yet to be restored and saved. The note of joy (v. 44) is also that of the prophets in view of Israel's restoration (Deut. 30. 9; Isa. 49. 13; 52. 1-3; 62. 4-7; 65. 18, 19). (See "Israel," Gen. 11. 10; Rom. 11. 26.)

<sup>3</sup> The true Church, "one body" formed by the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 12. 12, 13). As Israel is the hid treasure, so the Church is the pearl of great cost. Covering the same period of time as the mysteries of the kingdom, is the mystery of the Church (Rom. 16. 25, 26; Eph. 3. 3-10; 5. 32). Of the true Church a pearl is a perfect symbol: (1) A pearl is one, a perfect symbol of unity (1 Cor. 10. 17; 12. 12, 13; Eph. 4. 4-6). (2) A pearl is formed by accretion, and that not mechanically, but vitally, through a living one, as Christ adds to the Church (Acts 2. 41, 47; 5. 14; 11. 24; Eph. 2. 21; Col. 2. 19). (3) Christ, having given Himself for the pearl, is now preparing it for presentation to Himself (Eph. 5. 25-27). The kingdom is not the Church, but the true children of the kingdom during the fulfilment of these mysteries, baptized by one Spirit into one body (1 Cor. 12. 12, 13), compose the true Church, the pearl.

drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the bend of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

Jesus returns to Nazareth: again rejected (Mk. 6. 1-6; cf. Lk. 4. 16-32).

53 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

CHAPTER 14.

Herod's troubled conscience. Murder of John the Baptist (Mk. 6. 14-29; Lk. 9. 7-9).

AT that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,

2 And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

4 For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and wheat and tares of the mysteries of the kingdom as the sphere of profession, but with this difference: there Satan was the active agent; here the admixture is more the result of the tendency of a movement to gather to itself that which is not really of it. The kingdom of heaven is like a net which, cast into the sea of humanity, gathers of every kind, good and bad. And these remain together in the net (v. 49), and not merely in the sea, until the end of the age. It is not even a converted net, much less a converted sea. Infinite violence has been done to sound exegesis by the notion that the world is to be converted in this age. Against that notion stands our Lord's own interpretation of the parables of the Sower, the Wheat and Tares, and the Net.

Such, then, is the mystery form of the kingdom (see Mt. 3. 2, note; 6. 33, note). It is the sphere of Christian profession during this age. It is a mingled body of true and false, wheat and tares, good and bad. It is defiled by formalism, doubt, and worldliness. But within it Christ sees the true children of the true kingdom who, at the end, are to "shine forth as the sun." In the great field, the world, He sees the redeemed of all ages, but especially His hidden Israel, yet to be restored and blessed. Also, in this form of the kingdom, so unlike that which is to be, He sees the Church, His body and bride, and for joy He sells all that He has (2 Cor. 8. 9) and buys the field, the treasure, and the pearl.

took up the body, and buried it, and went and <sup>a</sup>told Jesus.

13 When Jesus heard of it, he <sup>b</sup>departed thence by <sup>c</sup>ship into a desert place apart; and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with <sup>d</sup>compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

The five thousand fed (Mk. 6. 30-44; Lk. 9. 10-17; John 6. 1-14).

15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; <sup>e</sup>give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, <sup>f</sup>Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the <sup>g</sup>five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he <sup>h</sup>blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 <sup>i</sup>And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that <sup>j</sup>remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

Jesus walks on the water: Peter's little faith (Mk. 6. 45-56; John 6. 15-21).

22 And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a <sup>k</sup>mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, <sup>l</sup>tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

CHAPTER 15.

Jesus rebukes scribes and Pharisees (Mk. 7. 1-23).

THEN came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the <sup>u</sup>tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also <sup>v</sup>transgress the <sup>v</sup>commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, <sup>w</sup>Honour thy father and mother: and, <sup>x</sup>He that curseth father or mother, let him <sup>y</sup>die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a <sup>z</sup>gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hypocrites, well did <sup>a</sup>Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their <sup>b</sup>mouth, and honour-eth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 <sup>c</sup>Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which <sup>d</sup>cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be <sup>e</sup>rooted up.

14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, Are ye also <sup>f</sup>yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the <sup>g</sup>heart; and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart proceed <sup>h</sup>evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

<sup>1</sup> For the first time the rejected Son of David ministers to a Gentile. It is a precurseful fulfilment of Mt. 12. 18. Addressed by a Gentile as Son of David, He makes no reply, for a Gentile has no claim upon Him in that character (see Mt. 2. 2, note; Eph. 2. 12). 38 And they that did eat were <sup>c</sup>four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

CHAPTER 16.

Jesus rebukes the blind Pharisees (Mk. 8. 10-12).

THE Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and <sup>d</sup>tempting desired him that he would shew them <sup>e</sup>a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is <sup>f</sup>evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 A <sup>g</sup>wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

Peter's confession. (Cf. Mt. 16. 13-20; Mk. 8. 27-30; Lk. 9. 18-21; John 6. 68, 69.)

13 When Jesus came into the coasts of <sup>l</sup>Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the <sup>m</sup>Son of man am?

14 And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say <sup>n</sup>ye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the <sup>o</sup>Christ, the Son of the living God.

First mention of the church.

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, <sup>p</sup>Blessed art thou, Simon <sup>q</sup>Bar-jona: for <sup>r</sup>flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art <sup>1</sup>Peter, and upon this rock I will build my <sup>2s</sup>church; and the gates of <sup>h</sup>hell shall not prevail against it.

<sup>1</sup> There is in the Greek a play upon the words, "thou art Peter [petros—literally, 'a little rock'], and upon this rock [Petra] I will build my church." He does not promise to build His church upon Peter, but upon Himself, as Peter himself is careful to tell us (1 Pet. 2. 4-9).

<sup>2</sup> Gr. ecclesia (ek = "out of," kaleo = "to call"), an assembly of called-out ones. The word is used of any assembly; the word itself implies no more, as, e.g., the town-meeting at Ephesus (Acts 19. 39), and Israel, called out of Egypt and assembled in the wilderness (Acts 7. 38). Israel was a true "church," but not in any sense the N.T. church—the only point of similarity being that both were "called out" and by the same God. All else is contrast. See Acts 7. 38, note; Heb. 12. 23, note.

19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then <sup>2b</sup>charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was <sup>c</sup>Jesus the Christ.

Christ foretells his death and resurrection (Mk. 8. 31-38; Lk. 9. 22-27).

21 From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and <sup>a</sup>suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to <sup>c</sup>rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, <sup>f</sup>Satan: thou art an <sup>o</sup>ffence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his <sup>h</sup>cross, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 For what is a man <sup>i</sup>profited, if he shall gain the whole <sup>j</sup>world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

CHAPTER 17.

AND <sup>n</sup>after six days Jesus taketh Peter, <sup>o</sup>James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

2 And <sup>3</sup>was <sup>p</sup>transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them <sup>q</sup>Moses and Elias talking with <sup>r</sup>him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved <sup>s</sup>Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard <sup>t</sup>it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

<sup>1</sup> Not the keys of the church, but of the kingdom of heaven in the sense of Mt. 13., i.e. the sphere of Christian profession. A key is a badge of power or authority (cf. Isa. 22. 22; Rev. 3. 7). The apostolic history explains and limits this trust, for it was Peter who opened the door of Christian opportunity to Israel on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2. 38-42), and to Gentiles in the house of Cornelius (Acts 10. 34-46). There was no assumption by Peter of any other authority (Acts 15. 7-11). In the council James, not Peter, seems to have presided (Acts 15. 19; cf. Gal. 2. 11-15). Peter claimed no more for himself than to be an apostle by gift (1 Pet. 1. 1), and an elder by office (1 Pet. 5. 1).

The power of binding and loosing was shared (Mt. 18. 18; John 20. 23) by the other disciples. That it did not involve the determination of the eternal destiny of souls is clear from Rev. 1. 18. The keys of death and the place of departed spirits are held by Christ alone.

<sup>2</sup> The disciples had been proclaiming Jesus as the Christ, i.e. the covenanted King of a kingdom promised to the Jews, and "at hand." The church, on the contrary, must be built upon testimony to Him as crucified, risen from the dead, ascended, and made "Head over all things to the church" (Eph. 1. 20-23). The former testimony was ended, the new testimony was not yet ready, because the blood of the new covenant had not yet been shed, but our Lord begins to speak of His death and resurrection (v. 21). It is a turning point of immense significance.

<sup>3</sup> The transfiguration scene contains, in miniature, all the elements of the future kingdom in manifestation: (1) The Lord, not in humiliation, but in glory (v. 2).

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the <sup>a</sup>Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, <sup>1</sup>Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, <sup>b</sup>Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

The powerless disciples; the mighty Christ (Mk. 9. 14-29; Lk. 9. 37-43).

14 And <sup>c</sup>when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to <sup>d</sup>me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the <sup>e</sup>devil; and he departed out of him: and <sup>f</sup>the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to 26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

(3) Elijah, glorified, representative of the redeemed who have entered the kingdom by translation (1 Cor. 15. 50-53; 1 Thes. 4. 14-17). (4) Peter, James, and John, not glorified, representatives (for the moment) of Israel in the flesh in the future kingdom (Ezk. 37. 21-27). (5) The multitude at the foot of the mountain (v. 14), representative of the nations who are to be brought into the kingdom after it is established over Israel (Isa. 11. 10-12, etc.).

(1) Christ confirms the specific and still unfulfilled prophecy of Mal. 4. 5, 6: "Elias shall truly first come and restore all things." Here, as in Malachi, the prediction fulfilled in John the Baptist, and that yet to be fulfilled in Elijah, are kept distinct. (2) But John the Baptist had come already, and with a ministry so completely in the spirit and power of Elijah's future ministry (Lk. 1. 17) that in an adumbrative and typical sense it could be said: "Elias is come already." Cf. Mt. 10. 40; Phm. 12, 17, where the same thought of identification, while yet preserving personal distinction, occurs (cf. John 1. 27).

thou shalt find a piece of money; that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER 18.

The sermon on the child-text
(Mk. 9. 33-37; Lk. 9. 46-48).

AT the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, <sup>a</sup>Who is the greatest in the <sup>b</sup>kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little <sup>c</sup>child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6 But whoso shall <sup>d</sup>offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 Woe unto the <sup>e</sup>world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 Wherefore <sup>f</sup>if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into <sup>g</sup>life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into <sup>h</sup>everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into <sup>i</sup>hell fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their <sup>j</sup>angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

The lost sheep: the seeking Lord. (Cf. Lk. 15. 3-7.)

11 For the <sup>k</sup>Son of man is come to <sup>l</sup>save that which was <sup>m</sup>lost.

12 How think ye? <sup>n</sup>if a man have an <sup>o</sup>hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

Discipline in the future church.

15 Moreover if thy <sup>h</sup>brother shall <sup>i</sup>trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of <sup>j</sup>two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the <sup>k</sup>church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an <sup>l</sup>heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall <sup>m</sup>bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

The law of forgiveness (Lk. 17. 3,4).

21 Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how <sup>p</sup>oft shall my brother <sup>q</sup>sin against me, and I <sup>r</sup>forgive him? till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until <sup>aa</sup>seventy times seven.

23 Therefore is the <sup>b</sup>kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would <sup>bb</sup>take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had <sup>cc</sup>not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying,

Lord, have patience with me, and I <sup>a</sup>will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and <sup>b</sup>forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him an hundred <sup>c</sup>pence; and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he <sup>d</sup>would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, <sup>e</sup>I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the <sup>f</sup>tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

shall cleave to his wife: and <sup>m</sup>they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, Why did <sup>n</sup>Moses then command to give a writing of divorce, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, <sup>o</sup>Moses because of the <sup>p</sup>hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 And I say unto you, <sup>q</sup>Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, <sup>r</sup>All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have <sup>s</sup>made themselves eunuchs for the <sup>t</sup>kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

Jesus receives and blesses little children (Mk. 10. 13-16; Lk. 18. 15-17).

13 Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for <sup>u</sup>of such is the <sup>v</sup>kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

The rich young ruler (Mk. 10. 17-30; Lk. 18. 18-30; cf. Lk. 10. 25-30).

16 And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have <sup>w</sup>eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, <sup>x</sup>keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which?

Jesus said, <sup>a</sup>Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 <sup>b</sup>Honour thy father and thy mother: and, <sup>c</sup>Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I <sup>d</sup>kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be <sup>e</sup>perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a <sup>f</sup>rich man shall hardly enter into the <sup>g</sup>kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be <sup>h</sup>saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is <sup>i</sup>impossible; but with God all things are possible.

The apostles' future place in the kingdom.

27 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the <sup>j</sup>re-generation <sup>k</sup>when the Son of man shall sit in the <sup>l</sup>throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, <sup>m</sup>judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And <sup>n</sup>every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

CHAPTER 20.

Parable of the labourers in the vineyard.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is <sup>x</sup>like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his <sup>y</sup>vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw <sup>z</sup>others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, <sup>aa</sup>Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when <sup>ab</sup>even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they <sup>ac</sup>received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they <sup>ad</sup>murmured against the Goodman of the house,

12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them <sup>ae</sup>equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them,

<sup>1</sup> Gr. palingenesia = "re-creation," "making new." The word occurs once again, in Tit. 3. 5. There it refers to the new birth of a believing person; here to the re-creation of the social order, and renewal of the earth (Isa. 11. 6-9; Rom. 8. 19-23) when the kingdom shall come. (See "Kingdom (O.T.)," Zech. 12. 8, note; 1 Cor. 15. 24, note.)

<sup>2</sup> Disclosing how the promise (Isa. 1. 26) will be fulfilled when the kingdom is set up. The kingdom will be administered over Israel through the apostles, according to the ancient theocratic judgship (Jud. 2. 18).

and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to do <sup>a</sup>what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good?

16 So the <sup>b</sup>last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

Jesus again foretells his death and resurrection (Mk. 10. 32-34; Lk. 18. 31-34. See Mt. 12. 38-45; 16. 21-28; 17. 22, 23).

17 And Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 <sup>c</sup>Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the <sup>d</sup>Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

19 And shall deliver him to the <sup>e</sup>Gentiles to <sup>f</sup>mock, and to <sup>g</sup>scourge, and to <sup>h</sup>crucify him: and the third day he shall <sup>i</sup>rise again.

James and John, through their mother, make an ambitious request (Mk. 10. 35-45).

20 Then came to him the <sup>j</sup>mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my <sup>k</sup>two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy <sup>l</sup>kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the <sup>m</sup>cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be

29 And as they <sup>t</sup>departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David.

33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jesus had <sup>x</sup>compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and <sup>y</sup>immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAPTER 21.

The King's public offer of himself as King (Zech. 9. 9; Mk. 11. 1-10; Lk. 19. 29-38).

AND when they drew <sup>y</sup>nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of <sup>1</sup> A discrepancy has been imagined between this account and those in Mk. 10. 46; Lk. 18. 35. Matthew and Mark obviously refer to a work of healing as Jesus departed from Jericho. Bartimeus, the active one of the two, the one who cried, "Jesus, thou Son of David," is specifically mentioned by Mark. Of the other one of the "two," we know nothing. The healing described by Luke (18. 35) occurred before Jesus entered Jericho. As to the form of appeal, "Son of David" (cf. Mt. 9. 27; 15. 22; 21. 9), Jesus must have been so addressed constantly. The narratives therefore supplement, but in no wise contradict each other.

Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 Tellye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.

10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

Jesus' second purification of the temple (Mk. 11. 15-18; Lk. 19. 45-47. Cf. John 2. 13-16).

12 And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased,

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said

Parable of the two sons.

28 But what think ye? <sup>b</sup>A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not; but afterward he <sup>c</sup>repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went <sup>c</sup>not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For John came unto you in the way of <sup>f</sup>righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots <sup>g</sup>believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

Parable of the householder demanding fruit from his vineyard (Mk. 12. 1-9; Lk. 20. 9-19. Cf. Isa. 5. 1-7).

33 Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to <sup>h</sup>husbandmen, and went into a far country:

34 And when the <sup>i</sup>time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his <sup>j</sup>son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the <sup>k</sup>heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

Parable of the marriage feast (Lk. 14. 16-24).

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

from the official representatives of the nation, He was soon to hear the multitude shout: "Crucify Him."

<sup>1</sup> Note that Matthew here as in verse 31 uses the larger word, kingdom of God. (Cf. Mt. 6. 33, note.) The kingdom of heaven (Mt. 3. 2, note; 1 Cor. 15. 24, summary) will yet be set up. Meantime the kingdom of God and His righteousness is taken from Israel nationally and given to the Gentiles (Rom. 9. 30-33).

<sup>2</sup> Christ as the "Stone" is revealed in a threefold way: (1) To Israel Christ,

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and <sup>a</sup>burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 <sup>b</sup>Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, <sup>d</sup>both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a <sup>e</sup>wedding garment? And he was <sup>f</sup>speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into <sup>g</sup>outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For <sup>h</sup>many are called, but few are chosen.

Jesus answers the Herodians (Mk. 12. 13-17; Lk. 20. 20-26).

15 <sup>i</sup>Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the <sup>j</sup>Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give <sup>k</sup>tribute unto Cæsar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why <sup>l</sup>tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he said unto them, Whose

Jesus answers the Sadducees (Mk. 12. 18-27; Lk. 20. 27-38).

23 The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no <sup>o</sup>resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 <sup>p</sup>Now there were with us seven brethren; and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, <sup>q</sup>Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the <sup>r</sup>resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are <sup>s</sup>as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read <sup>t</sup>that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

Jesus answers the Pharisees (Mk. 12. 28-34. Cf. Lk. 10. 25-28).

34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

coming not as a splendid monarch but in the form of a servant, is a stumbling-stone and rock of offence (Isa. 8. 14, 15; Rom. 9. 32, 33; 1 Cor. 1. 23; 1 Pet. 2. 8); (2) to the church, Christ is the foundation-stone and the head of the corner (1 Cor. 3. 11; Eph. 2. 20-22; 1 Pet. 2. 4, 5); (3) to the Gentile world-powers (see "Gentiles," Lk. 21. 24; Rev. 16. 19) He is to be the smiting-stone of destruction (Dan. 2. 34). Israel stumbled over Christ; the church is built upon Christ; Gentile world-dominion will be broken by Christ, (See "Armageddon," Rev. 16. 14; 19. 19.)

35 Then one of them, which was a <sup>1a</sup>lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

36 Master, which is the <sup>b</sup>great commandment in the <sup>c</sup>law?

37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt <sup>d</sup>love the <sup>e</sup>Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, <sup>f</sup>Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On these two commandments hang <sup>g</sup>all the law and the prophets.

Jesus questions the Pharisees (Mk. 12. 35-37; Lk. 20. 41-44).

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus <sup>h</sup>asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David <sup>i</sup>in <sup>j</sup>spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son? .

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

4 For <sup>l</sup>they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their works they do for to <sup>m</sup>be seen of men: they make broad their <sup>n</sup>phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

13 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in your-selves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 <sup>d</sup>Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater <sup>e</sup>damnation.

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye <sup>f</sup>compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of <sup>g</sup>hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, ye <sup>h</sup>blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is <sup>i</sup>wa debtor!

17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that <sup>j</sup>sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay <sup>a</sup>tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the <sup>b</sup>weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which strain <sup>c</sup>at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the <sup>d</sup>outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto <sup>e</sup>whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and <sup>f</sup>iniquity.

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye <sup>g</sup>build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the <sup>h</sup>children of them which killed the prophets.

32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the <sup>i</sup>damnation of hell?

34 Wherefore, behold, I <sup>k</sup>send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall <sup>l</sup>kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

CHAPTER 24.

The Olivet discourse: (1) destruction of the temple foretold (Mk. 13. 1, 2; Lk. 21. 5, 6).

AND Jesus went out, and <sup>v</sup>departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, <sup>w</sup>There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

The Olivet discourse: (2) the threefold question (Mk. 13. 3, 4; Lk. 21. 7).

3 And <sup>x</sup>as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, <sup>y</sup>Tell us, <sup>z</sup>when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy <sup>aa</sup>coming, and of the <sup>ab</sup>end of the world?

The Olivet discourse: (3) the course of this age (Mk. 13. 5-13; Lk. 21. 8-19).

4 And Jesus answered and said

1 The three "until's" of Israel's blessing: (1) Israel must say, "Blessed is He" (Mt. 23. 39; cf. Rom. 10. 3, 4). (2) Gentile world-power must run its course (Lk. 21. 24; Dan. 2. 34, 35). (3) The elect number of the Gentiles must be brought in, Then "the Deliverer shall come out of Zion," etc. (Rom. 11. 25-27).

2 Mt. 24. with Lk. 21. 20-24 answers the threefold question. The order is as follows: "When shall these things be?"—i.e. destruction of the temple and city.

unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For <sup>a</sup>many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of <sup>b</sup>wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For <sup>n</sup>ation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be <sup>d</sup>famines, and pestilences, and <sup>e</sup>earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then shall they <sup>f</sup>deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall <sup>g</sup>many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many <sup>h</sup>false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 And because <sup>i</sup>iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax <sup>k</sup>cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this <sup>l</sup>gospel of the <sup>m</sup>kingdom shall be preached in all the <sup>n</sup>world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

Answer, Lk. 21. 20-24. Second and third questions: "And what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the age?" Answer, Mt. 24. 4-33. Verses 4 to 14 have a double interpretation: They give (1) the character of the age—wars, international conflicts, famines, pestilences, persecutions, and false Christs (cf. Dan. 9. 26). This is not the description of a converted world. (2) But the same answer (vs. 4-14) applies in a specific way to the end of the age, viz. Daniel's seventieth week (Dan. 9. 24-27, note). All that has characterized the age gathers into awful intensity at the end. Verse 14 has specific reference to the proclamation of the good news that the kingdom is again "at hand" by the Jewish remnant (Isa. 1. 9; Rev. 14. 6, 7; Rom. 11. 5, note). Verse 15 gives the sign of the abomination (Dan. 9. 27, note)—the "man of sin," or "Beast" (2 Thes. 2. 3-8; Dan. 9. 27; 12. 11; Rev. 13. 4-7).

This introduces the great tribulation (Psa. 2. 5; Rev. 7. 14, note), which runs its awful course of three and a half years, culminating in the battle of Rev. 19. 19-21, note, at which time Christ becomes the smiting Stone of Dan. 2. 34. The detail of this period (vs. 15-28) is: (1) The abomination in the holy place (v. 15); (2) the warning (vs. 16-20) to believing Jews who will then be in Jerusalem; (3) the great tribulation, with renewed warning as to false Christs (vs. 21-26); (4) the sudden smiting of the Gentile world-power (vs. 27, 28); (5) the glorious appearing of the Lord, visible to all nations, and the regathering of Israel (vs. 29-31); (6) the sign of the fig-tree (vs. 32, 33); (7) warnings, applicable to this present age over which these events are ever impending (vs. 34-51; Phil. 4. 5). Careful study of Dan. 2., 7., 9., and Rev. 13. will make the interpretation clear. See, also, "Remnant" (Isa. 1. 9; Rom. 11. 5).

<sup>1</sup> Cf. Lk. 21. 20-24. The passage in Luke refers in express terms to a destruction of Jerusalem which was fulfilled by Titus, A.D. 70; the passage in Matthew to a future crisis in Jerusalem after the manifestation of the "abomination." See "Beast" (Dan. 7. 8; Rev. 19. 20); and "Armageddon" (Rev. 16. 14; 19. 17). As the circumstances in both cases will be similar, so are the warnings. In the former case Jerusalem was destroyed; in the latter it will be delivered by divine interposition.

The Olivet discourse: (5) the return of the King in glory (Mk. 13. 24-37; Lk. 21. 25-36).

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; <sup>b</sup>so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 For wheresoever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven; and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see <sup>j</sup>the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark,

39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

<sup>1</sup> Gr. genea, the primary definition of which is, "race, kind, family, stock, breed." (So all lexicons.) That the word is used in this sense here is sure because none of "these things," i.e. the world-wide preaching of the kingdom, the great tribulation, the return of the Lord in visible glory, and the regathering of the elect, occurred at the destruction of Jerusalem by Titus, A.D. 70. The promise is, therefore, that the generation—nation, or family of Israel—will be preserved unto "these things"; a promise wonderfully fulfilled to this day.

CHAPTER 25.

The Olivet discourse: (6) the Lord's return tests the real state of the kingdom in mystery.

THEN <sup>1</sup>shall the kingdom of <sup>a</sup>heaven be <sup>b</sup>likened unto ten <sup>2</sup>virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were <sup>c</sup>wise, and five were <sup>d</sup>foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are <sup>e</sup>gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you; but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were <sup>f</sup>ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, <sup>g</sup>open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 Watch therefore, for ye <sup>h</sup>know neither the day nor the hour where-in the <sup>i</sup>Son of man cometh.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and <sup>n</sup>hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and <sup>o</sup>reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

<sup>1</sup> This part of the Olivet discourse goes beyond the "sign" questions of the disciples (Mt. 24. 3), and presents our Lord's return in three aspects: (1) As testing profession, vs. 1-13; (2) as testing service, vs. 14-30; (3) as testing the Gentile nations, vs. 31-46.

<sup>2</sup> The kingdom of heaven here is the sphere of profession, as in Mt. 13. All alike have lamps, but two facts fix the real status of the foolish virgins: They "took no oil," and the Lord said, "I know you not." Oil is the symbol of the Holy Spirit, and "If any man have not the spirit of Christ, he is none of his" (Rom. 8. 9). Nor could the Lord say to any believer, however unspiritual, "I know you not."

ful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Olivet discourse: (8) the Lord's return tests the Gentile nations. (Cf. Joel 3. 11-16.)

31 Then the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

CHAPTER 26.

The Jewish authorities consult to put Jesus to death (Mk. 14. 1, 2; Lk. 22. 1, 2).

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

1 This judgment is to be distinguished from the judgment of the great white throne. Here there is no resurrection; the persons judged are living nations; no books are opened; three classes are present, sheep, goats, brethren; the time is at the return of Christ (v. 31); and the scene is on the earth. All these particulars are in contrast with Rev. 20. 11-15. The test in this judgment is the treatment accorded by the nations to those whom Christ here calls "my brethren." These "brethren" are the Jewish Remnant who will have preached the Gospel of the kingdom to all nations during the tribulation. See "Remnant" (Isa. 1. 9; Rom. 11. 5). The test in Rev. 20. 11-15, is the possession of eternal life. See, for the other six judgments, John 12. 31, note; 1 Cor. 11. 31, note; 2 Cor. 5. 10, note; Ezk. 20. 37, note; Jude 6, note; Rev. 20. 12, note.

4 And <sup>a</sup>consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an <sup>b</sup>uproar among the people.

Jesus anointed by Mary of Bethany (Mk. 14. 3-9; John 12. 1-8).

6 Now when Jesus was in <sup>c</sup>Bethany, in the house of Simon the <sup>d</sup>leper,

7 There came unto him a <sup>e</sup>woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his <sup>h</sup>head, as he sat at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For ye have the poor always with you; but <sup>f</sup>me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it <sup>g</sup>for my <sup>h</sup>burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Where-soever this <sup>i</sup>gospel shall be preached in the whole <sup>j</sup>world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

Judas Iscariot sells the Lord (Mk. 14. 10, 11; Lk. 22. 3-6).

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for <sup>k</sup>thirty pieces of silver.

17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, <sup>q</sup>My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

The last passover (Mk. 14. 17-21; Lk. 22. 14-20, 24-30).

20 Now when the even was come, he <sup>r</sup>sat down with the twelve.

(Here read John 13. 2-30.)

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall <sup>s</sup>betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He that <sup>t</sup>dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as it is <sup>u</sup>written of him; but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! <sup>v</sup>It had been good for that man if he had not been born.

Jesus institutes the Lord's Supper (Mk. 14. 22-25; Lk. 22. 17-20; 1 Cor. 11. 23-25).

26 And as they were eating, Je-

<sup>1</sup> No contradiction of John 12. 3 is implied. The ordinary anointing of hospitality and honour was of the feet (Lk. 7. 38) and head (Lk. 7. 46). But Mary of Bethany, who alone of our Lord's disciples had comprehended His thrice repeated announcement of His coming death and resurrection, invested the anointing with the deeper meaning of the preparation of His body for burying. Mary of Bethany was not among the women who went to the sepulchre with intent to embalm the body of Jesus.

<sup>2</sup> The order of events on the night of the Passover supper appears to have been: (1) The taking by our Lord and the disciples of their places at the table; (2) the contention who should be greatest; (3) the feet-washing; (4) the identification of Judas as the traitor; (5) the withdrawal of Judas; (6) the institution of the supper; (7) the words of Jesus while still in the room (Mt. 26. 26-29; Lk. 22. 35-38; John 13. 31-35; 14. 1-31); (8) the words of Jesus between the room and the garden (Mt. 26. 31-35; Mk. 14. 26-31; John 15. 16., 17.); it seems probable that the high-priestly prayer (John 17.) was uttered after they reached the garden; (9) the agony in the garden; (10) the betrayal and arrest; (11) Jesus before Caiaphas; Peter's denial.

us <sup>a</sup>took bread, and <sup>b</sup>blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my <sup>c</sup>body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my <sup>d</sup>blood of the <sup>e</sup>new testament, which is shed for many for the <sup>f</sup>remission of <sup>g</sup>sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's <sup>h</sup>kingdom.

<sup>1</sup> Forgiveness. Summary: The Greek word translated "remission" in Mt. 26. 28; Acts 10. 43; Heb. 9. 22, is elsewhere rendered "forgiveness." It means, to send off, or away. And this, throughout Scripture, is the one fundamental meaning of forgiveness—to separate the sin from the sinner. Distinction must be made between divine and human forgiveness: (1) Human forgiveness means the remission of penalty. In the Old Testament and the New, in type and fulfilment, the divine forgiveness follows the execution of the penalty. "The priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him" (Lev. 4. 35). "This is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission [sending away, forgiveness] of sins" (v. 28), "Without shedding of blood there is no remission" (Heb. 9. 22). See "Sacrifice" (Gen. 4. 4; Heb. 10. 18, note). The sin of the justified believer interrupts his fellowship, and is forgiven upon confession, but always on the ground of Christ's propitiating sacrifice (1 John 1. 6-9; 2. 2). (2) Human forgiveness rests upon and results from the divine forgiveness. In many passages this is assumed rather than stated, but the principle is declared in Eph. 4. 32; Mt. 18. 32, 33.

<sup>2</sup> The "cup" must be interpreted by our Lord's own use of that symbol in speaking of His approaching sacrificial death (Mt. 20. 22; John 18. 11). In view of John 10. 17, 18, He could have been in no fear of an unwilling death. The value of the account of the agony in the Garden is in the evidence it affords that He knew fully what the agony of the cross would mean when His soul was made an offering for sin (Isa. 53. 10) in the hiding of the Father's face. Knowing the cost to the utmost, He voluntarily paid it.

The second prayer (Mk. 14. 39; Lk. 22. 44).

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

The third prayer (Mk. 14. 41).

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, <sup>a</sup>Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of <sup>b</sup>sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

The betrayal and arrest of Jesus (Mk. 14. 43-50; Lk. 22. 47-53; John 18. 3-11).

47 And <sup>c</sup>while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall <sup>d</sup>kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and <sup>e</sup>kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, <sup>f</sup>Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out <sup>g</sup>his hand, and <sup>h</sup>drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place:

54 But how then shall the <sup>j</sup>scriptures be <sup>k</sup>fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, <sup>l</sup>Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples <sup>m</sup>forsook him, and fled.

58 But <sup>o</sup>Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's <sup>p</sup>palace, and went in, and sat with the <sup>q</sup>servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought <sup>r</sup>false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, <sup>s</sup>yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses,

61 And said, This <sup>t</sup>fellow said, I am able to <sup>u</sup>destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what <sup>v</sup>is it which these witness against thee?

<sup>1</sup> A comparison of the narratives gives the following order of events on the crucifixion day: (1) Early in the morning Jesus is brought before Caiaphas and the Sanhedrin. He is condemned and mocked (Mt. 26. 57-68; Mk. 14. 55-65; Lk. 22. 63-71; John 18. 19-24). (2) The Sanhedrin lead Jesus to Pilate (Mt. 27. 1, 2, 11-14; Mk. 15. 1-5; Lk. 23. 1-5; John 18. 28-38). (3) Pilate sends Jesus to Herod (Lk. 23. 6-12; John 19. 4). (4) Jesus is again brought before Pilate who releases Barabbas and delivers Jesus to be crucified (Mt. 27. 15-26; Mk. 15. 6-15; Lk. 23. 13-25; John 18. 39, 40; 19. 4-16). (5) Jesus is crowned with thorns, and mocked (Mt. 27. 26-30; Mk. 15. 15-20; John 19. 1-3). (6) Suicide of Judas (Mt. 27. 3-10). (7) Led forth to be crucified, the cross is laid upon Simon: Jesus discourses to the women (Mt. 27. 31, 32; Mk. 15. 20-23; Lk. 23. 26-33; John 19. 16, 17). For the order of events at the crucifixion see Mt. 27. 33, note.

hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man <sup>a</sup>sitting on the right hand of power, and <sup>b</sup>coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his <sup>c</sup>blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.

67 Then did they <sup>d</sup>spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others <sup>e</sup>smote him with the palms of their hands,

68 Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

Peter denies the Lord (Mk. 14. 66-72; Lk. 22. 55-62; John 18. 16-18, 25-27).

69 Now Peter <sup>f</sup>sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another <sup>g</sup>maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy <sup>h</sup>speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to <sup>i</sup>curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the <sup>j</sup>cock crew.

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

Judas' unavailing remorse. (Cf. Acts 1. 16-19.)

3 Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the <sup>k</sup>thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have <sup>l</sup>sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and <sup>m</sup>hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

9 Then was <sup>n</sup>fulfilled that which was spoken by <sup>2</sup>Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the <sup>o</sup>thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the <sup>p</sup>Lord appointed me.

Jesus interrogated by Pilate (Mk. 15. 2-5; Lk. 23. 2, 3; John 18. 29-38).

11 And Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor <sup>q</sup>asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, <sup>r</sup>Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered <sup>s</sup>nothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

<sup>1</sup> Cf. v. 69; Mk. 14. 69; Lk. 22. 58; John 18. 25. A discrepancy has been imagined in these accounts. Let it be remembered that an excited crowd had gathered, and that Peter was interrogated in two places: "With the servants" (Mt. 26. 58) where the first charge was made (v. 69); "the porch" where a great number of people would be gathered, and where the second and third interrogations were made by "another maid" and by "they," i.e. the crowd (vs. 71, 73; John 18. 25).

<sup>2</sup> The allusion is to Jeremiah 18. 1-4; 19. 1-3, but more distinctly to Zech. 11. 12, 13.

Jesus or Barabbas? (Mk. 15. 6-15; Lk. 23. 17-25; cf. John 18. 38-40).

15 Now at that feast the governor was <sup>a</sup>wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for <sup>b</sup>envy they had delivered him.

19 When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a <sup>c</sup>dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, <sup>d</sup>Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be <sup>e</sup>crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took <sup>f</sup>water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, <sup>g</sup>His blood be on us, and on our children.

51 And, behold, the <sup>3o</sup>veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the <sup>4g</sup>graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept <sup>h</sup>arose,

53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the <sup>holy</sup> city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they

“It is finished” (John 19. 30). (14) The seventh cry, “Father, into thy hands,” etc. (Lk. 23. 46). (15) Our Lord dismisses His spirit (Mt. 27. 50; Mk. 15. 37; Lk. 23. 46; John 19. 30).

<sup>1</sup> Cf. Mk. 15. 26; Lk. 23. 38; John 19. 19. These accounts supplement, but do not contradict each other. No one of the Evangelists quotes the entire inscription. All have “The King of the Jews.” Luke adds to this the further words, “This is”; Matthew quotes the name, “Jesus”; whilst John gives the additional words “of Nazareth.” The narratives combined give the entire inscription: “This is [Matthew, Luke] Jesus [Matthew, John] of Nazareth [John] the King of the Jews” [all].

<sup>2</sup> Literally, “dismissed His spirit.” The Gr. implies an act of the will. This expression, taken with Mk. 15. 37; Lk. 23. 46; John 19. 30, differentiates the death of Christ from all other physical death. He died by His own volition when He could say of His redemptive work, “It is finished.” “No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself” (John 10. 18).

<sup>3</sup> The veil which was rent was the veil which divided the holy place into which the priests entered from the holy of holies into which only the high priest might enter on the day of atonement (Ex. 26. 31, note; Lev. 16. 1-30). The rending of that veil, which was a type of the human body of Christ (Heb. 10. 20) signified that a “new and living way” was opened for all believers into the very presence of God with no other sacrifice or priesthood save Christ’s (cf. Heb. 9. 1-8; 10. 19-22).

<sup>4</sup> That these bodies returned to their graves is not said and may not be inferred. The wave-sheaf (Lev. 23. 10-12) typifies the resurrection of Christ, but a sheaf implies plurality. It was a single “corn of wheat” that fell into the ground in the crucifixion and entombment of Christ (John 12. 24); it was a sheaf which came forth in resurrection. The inference is that these saints, with the spirits of “just men made perfect” (Heb. 12. 23) from Paradise, went with Jesus (Eph. 4. 8-10) into heaven.

57 When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the <sup>d</sup>other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

The sepulchre sealed and guarded.

62 Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate,

63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, <sup>e</sup>After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have

CHAPTER 28.

The resurrection of Jesus Christ, and events of that day (Mk. 16. 1-14; Lk. 24. 1-49; John 20. 1-23.)

IN the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the <sup>d</sup>other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for <sup>s</sup>the <sup>h</sup>angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 <sup>i</sup>His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as <sup>j</sup>dead men.

5 And the <sup>h</sup>angel answered and said unto the women, <sup>k</sup>Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for <sup>l</sup>he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, <sup>2</sup>Jesus met them, saying, <sup>m</sup>All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be

<sup>1</sup> The order of events, combining the four narratives, is as follows: Three women, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, start for the sepulchre followed by other women bearing spices. The three find the stone rolled away, and Mary Magdalene goes to tell the disciples (Lk. 23. 55-24. 9; John 20. 1, 2). Mary, the mother of James and Joses, draws nearer the tomb and sees the angel of the Lord (Mt. 28. 2). She goes back to meet the other women following with the spices. Meanwhile Peter and John, warned by Mary Magdalene, arrive, look in, and go away (John 20. 3-10). Mary Magdalene returns weeping, sees the two angels and then Jesus (John 20. 11-18), and goes as He bade her to tell the disciples. Mary (mother of James and Joses), meanwhile, has met the women with the spices and, returning with them, they see the two angels (Lk. 24. 4, 5; Mk. 16. 5). They also receive the angelic message, and, going to seek the disciples, are met by Jesus (Mt. 28. 8-10).

<sup>2</sup> The order of our Lord's appearances would seem to be: On the day of His resurrection: (1) To Mary Magdalene (John 20. 14-18). (2) To the women returning not afraid: go tell my <sup>a</sup>brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken council, they gave large <sup>b</sup>money unto the soldiers,

13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will <sup>c</sup>persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

<sup>1</sup> With the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ begins the "dispensation of the grace of God" (Eph. 3. 2), which is defined as "his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus"; and, "the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast" (Eph. 2. 7-9). Under grace God freely gives to the believing sinner eternal life (Rom. 6. 23); accounts to him a perfect righteousness (Rom. 3. 21, 22; 4. 4, 5); and accords to him a perfect position (Eph. 1. 6). The predicted results of this sixth testing of man are: (1) The salvation of all who believe (Acts 16. 31); (2) judgment upon an unbelieving world and an apostate church (Mt. 25. 31-46; 2 Thes. 1. 7-10; 1 Pet. 4. 17, 18; Rev. 3. 15, 16).

(1) Man's state at the beginning of the dispensation of grace (Rom. 3. 19; Gal. 3. 22; Eph. 2. 11, 12). (2) Man's responsibility under grace (John 1. 11, 12; 3. 36; 6. 28, 29). (3) His predicted failure (Mt. 24. 37-39; Lk. 18. 8; 19. 12-14). (4) The judgment (2 Thes. 2. 7-12).

<sup>2</sup> The word is in the singular, the "name," not names. Father, Son, and Holy Spirit is the final name of the one true God. It affirms: (1) That God is one. (2) That He subsists in a personality which is threefold, indicated by relationship as Father and Son; by a mode of being as Spirit; and by the different parts taken by the Godhead in manifestation and in the work of redemption, e.g. John 3. 5, 6 (Spirit), 16, 17 (Father and Son). In Mt. 3. 16, 17; Mk. 1. 10, 11; Lk. 3. 21, 22, the three persons are in manifestation together. (3) The conjunction in one name of the Three affirms equality and oneness of substance. See O.T.
